Once in Battambang, as applicable, you are transferred to the hotel either by car or

This crossing is normally navigable throughout the year.

If the water is too low, our boat will land before your Battambang pier and you will continue by road by 4x4. When the water is low it is best to pick early, around 7:00.

Throughout this journey you will see the small villages on the both banks, fish farms, local residents who swim, herds in water, Chinese fishing square nets and agricultural scenes on 2 sides.

Important optional stops but with option 3:

At Prek Toal :

- A water hyacinth Workshop: In a large floating home, the women of the community produce general merchandise at the base of a variety of water hyacinth's "Long Branch".
- A floating crocodile farm.
- Vat Choeu Khmao or "black wood" Pagoda ruined in flooded place built by fishermen in the 19th century during the Siamese occupation.
- Floating village Bak Prea: A restaurant on the water is available but, however we recommend taking a picnic lunch (see the guide, we provide the water).

Warning: This crossing along the Prek Toal bird sanctuary but it is not a visite. To visit it is necessary to devote a day and spend the night there in order to surprise the birds at daybreak ... Contact us.

In Battambang we have the opportunity to see many French colonial houses.

Overnight in Battambang.

Services provided: vehicle conditioning with driver or boat depending on the chosen option, the hotel with breakfast, entrances to the visited sites.

Option for tonight or the next day: Pass by the circus school "Phare Ponleu Selpak" associative school where many young people come to learn various circus disciplines but also the illustration and theater, Depend on the schedule, there is the shows with little extra cost (usually it is closed on Sundays and other days depend on the seasons Ask your guide to call: 016,899,809). The circus is also every evening in Siem Reap Tel: 015499480. These shows are highly recommended (quality show ...)

Day 9: BATTAMBANG (B)

tolerance with the odor of fermented fish. Continue the rural visit to the old pagoda, Wat Samoung Knong sadly known by its prison activity during the Khmer Rouge regime. On the road, we will stop several times to observe the preparation of Krolann (pastry cake with glutinous rice, bean and coconut), rice pancakes, incense sticks, fish Nems.

Buy car at 13h30: excursion until Prasat Banon or the hill Banon which is an attractive temple perched at the top of a hill, 368 steps to climb for the bravest.

Then we will continue the road until Phnom Sampeou, 12Km of Battambang. At the top of a calcareous outcrop of Phnom Sampeou raises itself a set of temples, where the monkeys took up residence, with a magnificent view on the surrounding plains (A good physical condition is required).

You will discover a profound canyon of "ghosts" and caves having served as mass graves in the time of the Khmer Rouges. The corpses of the tortured prisoners were thrown to it. At the foot of hill, before slept sun, you can attend a magnificent show where millions of bats go out of the cave.

Option without supplement price during the day: Take ' Bamboo Train ' or train bamboo, visit a brickyard craft. Watch out! It moves terribly...

- Pagoda Wat DamreiSă, Wat Kandal,
- Battambang Museum,
- Former home the former noble in the village Wat Kor spared by the Khmer Rouge
- Old government Houe, out of service railway station, Colonial houses

Overnight in Battambang.

Services provided: vehicle conditioning with driver tuk tuk, bamboo train, the hotel with breakfast, entrances to the visited sites.

KAYAK optional for sports (extra charge):

Day 10: BATTAMBANG – Pursat – KampongChnang – PHNOM PENH (B)

8h00 : Departure from Battambang to Pursat town, located halfway from Phnom Penh, we will adjust the departure time according to what you wish to do during this day.

On the road, pass by the Krokor market famous for its fish's product..

Visit Kampong Luong by boat, rustic, private. A surprising floating city of about 12000 inhabitants, dividing into two communities. The one assures the collection and the distribution of fishes and the other one sells the fishing tools and the different household products. These villages move according to the water level and are very well equipped: doctors, restaurants, schools ... (It is most off-the-beaten-track)

Back to Phnom Penh via the Kampong Chnang Province famous for its floating village and its potteries.

At 36 km before arriving in Phnom Penh, visit Oudong, former Khmer capital. The palace was transformed into one of the most beautiful pagoda of this province situated at the foot of the Phnom Preah Jartroip hill (Mount Royal Treasury).

Visit the silversmiths village situated in Kampong Luong village, Pongnea Loeu district.

Transfer to the airport, your flight should be after 20:00, otherwise extend a night.
